Visa Exemption Announcement

Visa exemption for diplomatic and official passport holders of Myanmar and Serbia comes into force on 16 October 2019

The Agreement between the Government of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar and the Government of the Republic of Serbia on visa exemption for diplomatic and official passport holders, which was signed in Nay Pyi Taw, on 29 January 2019, will enter into force on 16 October 2019.

Based on this Agreement, diplomatic and official passport holders from Myanmar and Serbia will have the right to enter into, transit through and stay in the territory of the other Party without visa for a period not exceeding 90 (ninety) days from the date of their entry.

Brussels, 10 October 2019.
